

27th February 2023

ST THOMAS SNS NEWSLETTER

Rule of the Week

I have respect for people and for property

Attendance Drive

The school Attendance Drive starts today the 27th February for 4 weeks until the 24th March. Teachers will be giving out stamps to the pupils for their Attendance passport. Each pupil will get the following:

- Attendance Passport.
- Stamps for each day they are in.
- Rewards (treats, pencil cases and pencils)

The motto for the week is " Strive for Five" and pupils will be rewarded with a trip to the school cinema.

Getting to school everyday is so important for all our pupils. They have so many talents and skills and being in school will help them develop these. By being in school they are accessing a wonderful curriculum, making and sustaining friendships and learning what it means to be involved in long term learning.

Confirmation Ceremony

All meetings will be held in St Thomas' Church Jobstown

- Parents Information Meeting for Confirmation Monday 6th March @ 7pm
- Ceremony of Light Wednesday 15th March @ 7.30pm

Parent/Teacher Meetings

We hope all parents have had the opportunity to meet with their child's teacher but if you couldn't please contact the school to discuss another meeting- in person or over the phone.

Aldi Stickers

Our pupils continue to collect the ALDI stickers so the school can be in with a chance of winning 50,000 euro for the school.

Any contributions will be very much appreciated.
Thanks to Mr Daly's class for all their hard work.

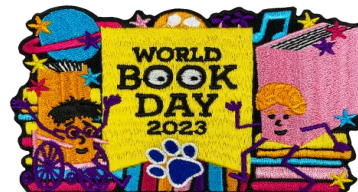

World Book Day

Every World Book Day, hundreds of book-related events take place across Ireland in schools, libraries, and bookshops. This year, World Book Day 2023 will be celebrated this Thursday the March 4th.

Children are encouraged to dress up as their favourite book characters and celebrate reading.

There will be prizes for class winners and an overall school winner.

Please keep an eye out for all the wonderful costumes on our social media platform.

Soccer Season

The girls and boys soccer teams will be kicking off their seasons this week with Cup games on Wednesday and Thursday.
Best of luck to them all.
